

Georges Seurat

Quiz Answers:

1. Pointillism. NOUN: A postimpressionist school of painting exemplified in late 19th-century France, characterized by the application of paint in small dots and brush strokes. ETYMOLOGY: French from pointiller, “to paint small dots.”
2. Monochromatic: ADJECTIVE: 1. Having or appearing to have only one color. 2. Of or composed of radiation of only one wavelength: monochromatic light.
3. Two.
4. Nope. He died at 31 from a disease (that also killed his young son).
5. Seurat’s faith? Didn’t find much – his biographical information was kind of thin. He did paint nudes and lived in secret with a model (no mention of marriage) with whom he had a son.

Georges Seurat

Quiz Answers:

1. Pointillism. NOUN: A postimpressionist school of painting exemplified in late 19th-century France, characterized by the application of paint in small dots and brush strokes. ETYMOLOGY: French from pointiller, “to paint small dots.”
2. Monochromatic: ADJECTIVE: 1. Having or appearing to have only one color. 2. Of or composed of radiation of only one wavelength: monochromatic light.
3. Two.
4. Nope. He died at 31 from a disease (that also killed his young son).
5. Seurat’s faith? Didn’t find much – his biographical information was kind of thin. He did paint nudes and lived in secret with a model (no mention of marriage) with whom he had a son.